

2023 Community Programs—Just A Few Opportunities Remain!

Thank you, Sevastopol, for your interest in our 2023 Community Programs. Most classes are at capacity, with a few of the educational seminars still available. Please consider registering for the following programs to be held in the Carl Scholz Pioneer Room at Sevastopol:

Keeping Kids Safe: 20 Mobile Apps Parents Should Know

Monday, March 6, 2023, from 6:00 – 7:30 pm. —Presented by Chad K. Mielke, Digital Forensic Investigator.

Financial Wellness—401K, 403B, Roth or Traditional IRA? What Vehicle is Best for Investing?

Monday, March 13, 2023, from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m.—Presented by Danny Hanson, CFP Financial Advisor RBC Wealth Management.

Miller Art Series:

#101 Still Life: Storytelling & Secret Messages

Thursday, February 16, 2023, from 5:00 – 6:30 p.m.—Presented by Helen del Guidice, Curator Miller Art Museum.

#102 The Artist Signature Debate

Thursday, March 2, 2023, from 5:00 – 6:30 p.m. -- Presented by Helen del Guidice, Curator Miller Art Museum and a local artist.

#103 Conversation Around the Easel: R. Charlie Lyons

Thursday, March 9, 2023, from 5:00 – 6:30 p.m.-- Presented by Helen del Guidice, Curator Miller Art Museum and a local artist.

#104 The Studio Door

Thursday, March 16, 2023, from 5:00 – 6:30 p.m. Presented by Helen del Guidice, Curator Miller Art Museum and a local artist.

Descriptions for each of the seminars are provided within the 2023 Course Brochure. Or please email us at communityprograms@sevastopolschool.com or call (920) 743-6282 Ext. 1132.